New LEM and lector:

Welcome and thanks to our new LEM, Donte Apperwhite (already serving as a lector), and to Micah Palpant, who has returned to the corps of lectors. So happy to have these two join us!

A note for LEMS:

We have returned to the altar rail for communion, but the rector has directed that for now all parishioners will continue to receive the bread and wine by intinction – or, if they prefer, the bread only. We're dropping the requirement for gloves and masks, but of course you may wear them if you are more comfortable, or if you have any trace of a respiratory infection. Let the Altar Guild know what you need.

Notes for Lectors:

The first lector listed for the 10 a.m. service each Sunday reads the Old Testament (first) lesson. The second lector listed reads the New Testament (second) lesson. The third reads the Prayers of the People. If the choir is not present, the first reader will also lead the psalm.

The rector has requested that you introduce your readings by saying "A reading from [the book of] _____." You can omit "the book of" if you wish, and just say "A reading from Genesis," or "a reading from First Kings," or whatever is appropriate. Please do not cite chapter and verse. If it's an Epistle, please use this form: "A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians" or "A reading from the first letter of Peter." Conclude by saying, "The Word of the Lord." The congregation will respond, "Thanks be to God."

Bishops' and priests' names for the Prayers of the People:

Michael, our presiding bishop; Sean, our presiding bishop-elect; John our bishop; Susan and Jim, our priests ...

Please note: The new presiding bishop will begin his term on November 1, so beginning All Saints Sunday (Nov. 3), please use these names:

Sean, our presiding bishop; John, our bishop; Susan and Jim, our priests ...

Schedule notes (For everyone):

If you can't serve as scheduled, please contact the LEM/lector coordinator, the rector or Nancy Rice (at the office) as soon as possible by phone or email (contact information is below). If you can find a substitute, that will help us a lot, but please call or email the church office (626.335.3171 or grace@graceglendora.org) and tell us who we should expect. Please note that information conveyed in person on Sunday is likely to be imperfectly remembered; a phone call, text or email is more reliable.

If you are ill or have some other emergency when you are scheduled to serve or read, please call the church office and let us know so we can round up a substitute. LEMs: If you're not in the sacristy getting robed by 10 minutes before the service, and we have not heard from you, you may be replaced at the discretion of the rector.

If you have questions, please contact Janet (213.220.5566 or jskawamoto@gmail.com) or Susan (626.335.3171 or revsusan@graceglendora.org).

Thank you for your faithful service.

Janet Kawamoto
